PLEASE READ IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This form is to point out a few important items you should become aware of in the process of obtaining a mortgage. Please review these carefully. Understanding these items will significantly help the mortgage loan process be a positive experience for you.

Locking in your interest rate:

Generally speaking you can not “lock in” your rate until you are under contract on a home and are within 60 days of closing. There are lenders that have extended locks; however, you would lock in a slightly higher rate. Depending upon the lender and loan program you may or may not have a “float down option”. For a traditional 30 year conventional or government loan such as FHA or VA there are no float down options. When you lock in your loan you are guaranteed that rate with the lender for a defined period of time such as 30 or 45 days. This locked rate is subject to you and the property being approved by the lender. If your loan application isn't approved as submitted, that locked rate is no longer in effect.

You can lock the loan in only with your Loan Officer. Until a confirmation is received back from the lender, you are not guaranteed to be locked. Having a Good Faith Estimate with a certain rate on it does not mean you are locked. We will fax/mail/e-mail you a lock confirmation once we have one from the lender, whichever avenue is best. Please sign the Good Faith Estimate with the locked rate and return to us.

Items Needed:

We will tell you the items we need as we review your file. The lender may request additional information once your file is underwritten. We appreciate your prompt attention to our requests. Delays in us receiving the necessary documents may result in your closing being delayed.

After you are under contract, please let us know who your Hazard/Homeowner's Insurance agent will be. We will need their name and number so that we may give them important information so you can obtain your policy. We will need the declaration page of the policy 5 days prior to the anticipated closing date.

What you need at closing:

- 1) CERTIFIED CHECK made payable to yourself. You can get the check based on the Good Faith Estimate. If the check is written for too much, you will get a check for the difference back from the attorney. If the funds are not enough, you may write a personal check for the difference.
- 2) Picture ID such as your driver's license

Owner's title insurance:

Owner's title insurance is an optional policy to protect your financial investment in the home. Since it is optional we do not include in on the Good Faith Estimate. As a broker, I do not benefit if you do chose to purchase it; however, I do recommend it. As a one time fee, it protects you from unknown flaws in the title such a mis-recorded deed, fraud, erroneous claims (even if someone without a legitimate claim sues you, you still have to pay to defend yourself). I suggest you ask your agent or lawyer for further advice. The fee for the coverage is set by the closing attorney and depends upon how much money you put down. You can call them for an amount. You may pay for this by personal check.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE TO MORTGAGE LOAN APPLICANTS: THE RIGHT TO COLLECT YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN PAYMENTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED. FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU CERTAIN RELATED RIGHTS. READ THIS STATEMENT AND SIGN IT ONLY IF YOU UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS.

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA)(12 U.S.C. S2601 et seq.) you have certain rights under the Federal Law. The settlement tells you about those rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan may be transferred to a different loan servicer. "Servicing" refers to collecting your principal, interest and escrow account payments, if any. If your loan servicer changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

TRANSFER PRACTICES AND REQUIREMENTS

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold or transferred to a new servicer, you must be given written notice of that transfer. The present loan servicer must send you notice in writing of the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine the information in one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of transfer. The 15 day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provided to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more than 30 days after transfer) for servicers to notify you under certain limited circumstances, when your service is changed abruptly. This exception applies only if your servicer is fired for cause, is in bankruptcy proceedings, or is involved in a conservatorship or receivership initiated by a Federal Agency.

Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of the transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer; the name, address and toll-free or collect call telephone number of a person or a department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer questions about the transfer of servicing. During the 60-day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C. S2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred. If you send a "qualified written request" to your loan servicer concerning the servicing of your loan, your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgment within 20 business days of receipt of your request. A "qualified written request" is a written correspondence, other than notice on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and your reasons for the request. Not later than 60 business days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, and must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60 day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request.

A business day is any day, excluding public holidays (State or Federal), Saturday and Sunday.

DAMAGE AND COST

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that Section.
